1. I have given further consideration to the project proposed in the first reference and have consulted with competent mathematicians outside the DD/I area and have decided that on balance the project appears to be a worthwhile undertaking.

2. It is, therefore, my desire that this project be included in your forthcoming general program for research and Soviet science and that preparatory work on it commence as early as possible. In view of the initiative shown by  in the premises I believe he should play a leading role.
